

CHAPTER 612.

AN ACT to amend 66.295 (1) of the statutes, relating to authority of cities to pay for public works done in good faith.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

66.295 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

66.295 (1) Whenever any city of whatever class, however incorporated, shall have received and shall have enjoyed or shall be enjoying any benefits or improvements furnished prior to March 20, 1949, under any contract which shall have been * * * no legal obligation on any such city and which contract was entered into in good faith and has been fully performed and the work has been accepted by the proper city officials, so as to impose a moral obligation upon such city to pay therefor, such city, by resolution of its common council and in consideration of such moral obligation, may pay to the person furnishing such benefits or improvements the fair and reasonable value of such benefits and improvements.

Approved August 3, 1949.
